The property, now consisting of a single large property, will be fractionated according to the project illustrated, the images in the ad are purely illustrative renders, designed to show a possible distribution of space when the intervention is completed. The project includes an entrance on a large open space living room with open kitchen, overlooking a panoramic balcony with open views of the sea and Mount Portofino, accessible from all rooms and able to ensure great brightness. The sleeping area will include two bedrooms, one with walk-in closet, and two bathrooms. The rooms are in need of renovation and modernization, offering the possibility to fully customize the spaces according to your needs. To complete the dwelling, armored door and video intercom, guaranteeing security and tranquility.
